450th anniversary celebration of the death of Giorgio Vasari (1511-1574).

Liana De Girolami Cheney, ATSAH President. ATSAH affiliated society of SECAC

Giorgio Vasari (1511–1574) was a passionate artist who diligently pursued his art. He excelled in various aspects of art, including drawing, architectural design of palaces and municipal edifices, and creating complex visual narratives with classical, emblematic, mythological references and biblical stories.

We invite submissions of papers related to Giorgio Vasari and his legacy. On the anniversary of his passing, let's celebrate the memory of the renowned artist and historian Giorgio Vasari. This is an excellent opportunity to pay tribute to his remarkable contributions to the arts and history.
