Dear ATSAH member,

Happy New Year 2017! Thank you for all your support during the academic year and for your contributions. Please continue submitting paper proposals and reviews for the coming year and 2018 posted in our website <http://atsah.wordpress.com>. This coming 2017 will be another success for our organization thanks to your efforts and collaboration.

ATSHA Conferences and Projects 2017

CAA (February - New York), one session on Arts and Politics Religious and Secular Iconocrazia
RSA (March - Chicago), five sessions on Renaissance, Caricature, Devotion and Salvation in Art, Forgotten Images and Texts, Architecture, Music and Culture.
SCRC International (April - Austin, Texas), an open session in Art History.
SECAC (October – Columbus, Ohio), one session on Art and the Protestant Reformation

Special collaborations

We continue to collaborate with the Symbolist Society, chaired by Prof. Rosina Neginsky, Prof. of Comparative Literature and Fine Arts, University of Illinois (Urbana/Champaign) and Dr. Sarah Lippert, University of Michigan at Flint, on Paragone in the Arts.

In Gratitude

Profs. Maureen Pelta and Yael Even for their generous donations, Profs. Tina Bizzarro, Charles Burroughs, Vida Hull, David Cast, Karen Goodchild, Sandra Cheng, Kasia Murawska-Muthesius, Lynette Bosch, Sara James, Eliana Carrara, William Levin, Ellen Longhsworth for their continuous collaborations, and Lilian Zirpolo for advertising our association in her journal, New Journal of Early Modern Art.

Invitation

Kindly submit topic for panel proposals for CAA 2018, RSA 2018 and SCRC 2018. For SECAC 2017, we need paper presentation. We would be grateful to receive book reviews as well as your recent publications so we can post them in our website. Our organization is small but academically very successful because of your participation.

Award Proposals

When you have some time, could you kindly comment on these two new proposals. Your input and suggestions are greatly appreciated.

Travel grant for Graduate Students (Liana)
Book award for scholarly books (Proposed by Prof. Lynette Bosch)

With warmest regards,

Liana
